DEPARTMENT OF PHARMACY
SMBBMU, LARKANA

Message of Chairman

By the grace of Almighty ALLAH, with kind Guidance and support of Worthy Vice Chancellor

Prof. Dr. GhulamAshgarChanna, the Department of Pharmacy had inaugurated the first batch of Sixty (60) students to offer Doctor of Pharmacy (Pharm. D) program. Being first Chairman, It's my pleasure to welcome another batch of new undergraduates to the Department of Pharmacy. I am committed to cater optimum education and helpful learning environment, so that our graduates may prove themselves talented, well trained and responsible pharmacists who can be a care giver, decision maker, communicator, leader, lifelong learner and teacher.

The discipline of pharmacy has emerged as the fastest growing professional degree program of learning therefore we have put generous and earnest efforts to introduce the Doctor of Pharmacy (Pharm. D Degree) Program in the interior of Sindh at Larkana and we strive for improvement through learning and reflection. We have air conditioned lecture halls, well equipped laboratories and a seminar library with wide range of books and relevant stuff.

The scope of pharmacy field varies from traditional role of compounding and dispensing to more modern services of reviewing medications for safety and efficacy, providing drug information and clinical services. It is an integral part of our health care system.

Pharmacists are the experts on drug therapy who optimize medication use to provide patients compliances. Apart from its pivotal role in healthcare, pharmacy also plays an important role in business sector of the world, sharing about two third of the total market through pharmaceutical products.

I feel privileged that all faculty members at the Department of Pharmacy, ShaheedMohtarma Benazir Bhutto Medical University Larkana, are highly qualified and competent enough to impart to quality education. They are academic experts, research scholars, and the catalyst to change and innovation.

There is a planned structure of curricular and co-curricular activities to boost up the students in all aspects.

I wish that your time at Department of Pharmacy will be efficacious.

Dr. Abdul Rauf Khaskheli

Chairman Department of Pharmacy

Vision

Education and training for promoting safe and rational usage of drugs by using modern and evidence based methodology, conducted in ethical manner to meet the highest professional standards in industry, marketing, hospitals and patient care.

Mission

We will produce well qualified, professionally trained and highly competent Pharmacists to perform the specialized tasks in their specific areas of activity such as drug design, synthesis, manufacturing, quality assurance, marketing and supply system, procurement, storage, distribution and use of the drug in industry, hospital setting or in community practice. Hence, we aim to provide:

1. Quality Education
2. Research Facilities.
3. Comprehensive Education.
4. Progressive learning Environment.
5. Mental strengths by involving them in seminars and presentations.
